

KLOVE gives hope to me in this time of uncertainty not only in my community but in the world we live in today. Many people in my area would be disheartened if we were to lose KLOVE since it is an uplifting station. It is in the public interest to keep this station in my area since it provides strength and inspiration through the scripture and music and encouraging words. This station brings souls to Christ.